ON CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS

ROBERT INGERSOLL'S VIEWS ON THE FESTIVAL.

What the Great Thinker Wishes as the Christmas Present to the World—
Some Bright Thoughts.

Having been asked to write for the Arena upon Christmas, Bob Ingersoll expresses himself as follows:

If I had the power to produce exactly what I want for this Christmas, I would have all the kings and emperors resign and allow the people to govern themselves.

I would have all the nobility drop their titles and give their lands back to the people. I would have the Pope throw away his tiara, take off his sacered vestments, and admit he is not acting for God—is not infallible—but is just an ordinary Italian. I would have all the cardinals, archbishops, priests and clergymen admit that they know nothing about theology, nothing about hell or heaven, nothing about the destiny of the human race, nothing about devils or ghosts, gods or angels. I would have them tell all their "flocks" to think for themselves, to be manly men and womanly women, and to do all in their power to increase the sum of human happiness.

I would have all the professors in colleges, all the teachers in schools of every kind, including those in Sunday schools, agree that they would teach only what they know, that they would not palm off guesses as demonstrated truths.

I would like to see all the politicians changed to statesmen—to men who long to make their country great and free—to men who care more for public good than private gain—men who long to be of use.

I would like to see all the editors of papers and magazines agree to print the truth and nothing but the truth, to avoid all slander and misrepresentation, and to let the private affairs of the people alone.

I would like to see drunkenness and prostitution both abolished.

I would like to see corporal punishment done away with in every home, in every school, in every asylum, reformatory and prison. Cruelty hardens and degrades, kindness reforms and ennobles.

I would like to see the millionaires unite and form a trust for the public good.

I would like to see a fair division of profits between capital and labor, so that the toiler could save enough to mingle a little June with the December of his life.

I would like to see an international court established in which to settle disputes between nations, so that armies could be disbanded and the great navies allowed to rust and rot in perfect peace.

I would like to see the whole world free—from injustice—free from superstition.

This I will do for this Christmas.
The following Christmas I may want more.

LADY BIRDS FOR HILO.
When Manager Grant of the Hilo Ice works left Honolulu last week he took with him several thousand lady birds, which were sent from the Pacific Coast by Professor Koebele.
These bugs will destroy the rose bug and the white fly. In fact they will make a square meal out of most any kind of blight.

MR. HUMBERG WILL BUILD.

The bids for John Humberg's new residence have been opened in Ripley & Dickey's office. Contractor Ouder-kirk is the lowest bidder. Mr. Hum-berg has decided to alter his plans somewhat and he will ask Mr. Ouder-kirk to submit a second bid.

WORK NEARLY COMPLETED.

Contractor Andrade returned to Wai-alua today, where he has a large number of men engaged in constructing the road bed for the Oahu railway extension from Waialua to Waiakua.
Mr. Andrade says that his men have about four miles of the road bed to complete between Kaena Point and Waiakua.
